

Guided Notes: ADVERBS

Name: _____

An _____ is a word that describes or modifies anything other than a Noun or Pronoun

An Adverb is one of the _____ parts of speech.

Adverbs often describe _____

They can indicate _____, place, manner, _____, cause, or _____

Many times they answer _____, _____, or _____

Write down THREE Adverbs that end with -ly: _____

Write down THREE Adverbs that don't end with -ly: _____

Identify the Adverbs in the following sentences and write them on the line provided:

The student ran fast! _____

My dad walked slowly. _____

Tina's poodle barked excitedly. _____

Our homework is due tomorrow. _____

Adverbs can also describe _____

Identify the Adverbs in the following sentences and write them on the line provided:

My teacher is quite upset. _____

Her homework is frequently late. _____

Martin was never excited. _____

Adverbs can also describe other _____

Identify the Adverbs in the following sentences and write them on the line provided:

That player ran rather quickly down the court. _____

Mike drives very carefully on the highway. _____

Adverbs can also describe the entire _____

What is an Adverb to use instead of the adjective 'real'? _____

What is an Adverb to use instead of the adjective 'bright'? _____

List FIVE Adverbs you should try to avoid overusing in your writing:

Why should we use carefully-chosen Adverbs in our writing?